Charlie Allen 'Detained' by Passport Police in France!

As American recording artist Charlie Allen departed the MIDEM music conference in France to progress to the second leg of his European media tour, he was "detained" by French Passport Control police at the Nice Airport to pose for pictures. Allen's publicist conveyed, "I've never seen anything like this. The queue completely came to a stand still!" Several of the police gathered for photos while bewildered travelers looked on.

Allen and entourage traveled safely on to London, where the singer will hold press interviews while staying at the Dorchester, and is scheduled to perform for an invitation-only acoustic showcase at Gibson Guitar Studio this Wednesday (28th of January) at 6:30 p.m. local time (18:30 hrs.)

Allen is in Europe to promote his chart-topping River Run Records single, "Proof."
